

NEW ZEALAND DIPLOMA IN SECURITY LEVEL 6

The New Zealand Diploma in Security Level 6 is programme that allows learners to work through some of the basic components required at this level and then to complete modules that reflect their chosen area of speciality. Your specialty pathway will be discussed with you either at the time of your interview or on the compulsory contact day. However, if you are still unsure of what area you wish to work in, there is time to make that decision prior to starting the electives.

The Diploma is intended for professional security personnel who work in roles that may include:

- Security Risk Managers
- Corporate managers of security functions
- Departmental security officers
- Security Consultants
- Security Managers
- Sales roles requiring security survey or risk assessment skills
- Investigative work in a corporate environment
- Insurance assessors who assess security risks

Specialty – Security Consultant – Special Risks (Terrorism)

1. Demonstrate knowledge of the threat presented by terrorism and related risk management strategies (Unit Standard 20304 – 15 credits)
2. Provide advice on special security risks (Unit Standard 19759 – 20 credits)

Specialty – Security Consultant – General

1. Manage the application of security principles, practice, and procedures (Unit Standard 19752 – 15 credits)
2. Identify and assess key features of the security industry (Unit Standard 15283 – 18 credits)

Specialty Security Consultant – Electronic Security

1. Apply security techniques, hardware, and systems to minimise risk (Unit Standard 19756 – 25 credits)

Specialty – Security Management

1. Manage the application of security principles, practice and procedures (Unit Standard 19752 – 15 credits).
2. Identify and assess key features of the security industry (Unit Standard 15283 – 18 credits)

Specialty – Professional Investigations

1. Conduct security interviews (Unit Standard 19753 – 10 credits)
2. Conduct security investigations (Unit Standard 19758 – 20 credits)

We have grouped the elective modules into specialties for guidance only as an example of what your course of study might look like. However, as long as the required 25 credit value is achieved, it is possible to mix and match the elective Unit Standards to better suit your current role or your future career aspirations.

For more information regarding the above Unit Standards, please go to the NZQA website <https://www.nzqa.govt.nz/>

Enrolment.

It is important to C4 that you are able to successfully complete this qualification and therefore we have put in place criteria that will support your application. Whilst we will provide all the support we can, as a distance course this will be mostly managed by you in your own (or possibly work) time. The criteria are:

1. Must be working in a security role. This provides a basic (or advanced) knowledge of security depending on what level you are at. We do accept learners who are not currently working within the industry but that will be decided on a case by case basis.
2. You must be able to study at a level that will enable you to complete the qualification. This includes your level of English (if English is your second language), your academic abilities and the amount of time you can put aside to study. This is determined in the interview with the course coordinators.
3. You must have a specific level of English if English is your second language. NZQA requires us to ensure that your English skills are at the level of the Diploma and this is determined by submission of formal certification documents. If you want to know what you need to comply with the required level please go to the following link and check the column marked "Certificate or Diploma at Level 6".

Fee payment.

The fees for the course are $5500 and this covers all costs associated with the course. It excludes travel to the Contact Day and also the purchase of suggested standards and texts. There are no compulsory texts for this course, but you will have 'read only' access to NZ standards included in the course fee payment.

There is no external funding for this course, however, to support you we can offer the following process:

- Deposit of $300 on acceptance of enrolment
- Automatic payment plan of $290.00 a month for 17 months with a final payment of $270
- Must be paid within 18 months of enrolment in order that the final assessment is marked, and credits reported to NZQA
- If your company is funding you, we will invoice them at the start of the programme with payment being due on the 20th of the following month

Contact Day.

Once you have enrolled you will be booked into a Contact Day in the centre of your choice. On this day we introduce you to the course, the assessments, the course coordinators and support systems as well as covering self-directed learning hints and tips etc. If you are unsure if the Diploma is right for you, you are welcome to attend one without having to enrol. This will give you a better idea of what the programme is about and whether or not it is for you. Dates and centres for the contact days are available by contacting our administration team.

If you attend a Contact Day prior to enrolling, you have 3 months in which to complete an enrolment. After that, you will need to repeat the Contact Day.
