

Security Foundation Skills Course

C4 Group is a Category 1 NZQA training provider that has long been committed to supporting our community to achieve and to find their place in the employment sector. As New Zealand's leader in delivering security training, C4 are the only training provider to offer a career pathway for the sector and to show learners where training could take them in a security career. From foundation skills to national qualifications and beyond, we offer the widest range of security training in NZ.

The security industry is growing as requirements for Security Officers increases, and we have developed a programme that specifically addresses key skills and knowledge required for a security role.

Hop-on Hop-off

As most of the skills and knowledge offered on this course are generic to a number of industries, C4 offers a Hop-on Hop-off service whereby learners can attend individual days as required e.g. First Aid, Fire, Health and Safety and Customer Service.

Delivery Centres.

At the moment we are only delivering this course at our site in Auckland. However if there is interest around the country we are happy to run a course in your area.
